Onepoint, Butler Industries and Econocom consortium confirms to end current negotiations

The consortium formed by Onepoint, Butler Industries and Econocom confirms today putting an end to the negotiations underway as part of the due diligence and discussion phase initiated with Atos on June 12th, 2024, under the aegis of the Conciliator, Maître Hélène Bourbouloux.

Despite the tremendous commitment of Atos employees and the resilience of the Group's clients, the Onepoint, Butler Industries and Econocom consortium found that the conditions were not ripe to reach an agreement paving the way for a lasting solution to the financial restructuring and implementation of the project.
